

green
party

POLITICAL REFORM

- The Green Party is the only political party in Northern Ireland which does not accept corporate donations. The Green Party will work towards a ban on corporate donations to all political parties, as we feel business influence on politics, affects the democratic process negatively.
- Develop an automatic voter registration system to improve turnout.
- Control the use of election posters and introduce strict controls on election spending.